the screen is small
the cartoon pixelized skyscrapers keep rolling a fast zoom on a window the carpet is grey - adequate for an office space almost the caricature of itself the desk is made out of mahogany the secretary works hard she moves like a GIF she wears a yellow pea coat she wears high heels leaving she leaves regular marks on the carpet surface a fast zoom on a showcase the carpet is grey again - appropriate for an exhibition space mahogany is the wood for distracted people they go down the stairs one step after the other at the foot of the stairs - a zenithal lighting source makes them thirsty and horny

all of a sudden they realise they have a boner they turn on the ruby red Nespresso compatible machine what should they do with the stranger bodies they've got hidden by the blue V-neck knit pullover the speculation of others on their skin no orgasm, please we're theoretical the screen is switched on - large enough the advertising spot of a vacuum cleaner is extremely persuasive a fast zoom on the carpet until we got a molecular vision of it fragments of popcorn flying up slowly - than faster
